

SCIENCE & SOUND

{ A hands on integration of sound and science! Students explore how instruments make different pitches and vibrations and discover what happens when electricity is added to the mix. They also learn how sound is transmitted, generated and interpreted in an engaging and interactive environment! }

FIELD TRIP GENERAL INFORMATION

Grades 3-5

45-60 minute workshop

$100 for 30 students

Aligned with state Standards

Taught by professional teaching artists who adapt instruction to specific grade level

$400 for 30 students - Includes EMP class and admission

Funding assistance for schools with 40% free/reduced lunch

Bus assistance by request

Includes 2 classroom workshops and concluding workshop with professional teaching artist at the EMP

Aligned with Washington's State standards

Content can be adjusted to meet specific classroom needs

OUTREACH PROGRAM INFORMATION

EMP MUSEUM
music + sci-fi + pop culture

Bonnie Showers

Museum Curator

Bshowers@EMPmuseum.org

206-262-3250

FOR MORE INFORMATION

